

A War Not Easily Won:
Curbing Infectious Diseases in Developing Countries

William Fisher & Talha Syed

Detailed Table of Contents

Introduction

Part I: Where We Stand

Chapter 1: Diseases

- A. HIV/AIDS
- B. Tuberculosis
- C. Malaria
- D. Ebola
- E. COVID-19

Chapter 2: Institutions

- A. Developed-Country Governments
  - 1. Incentives
  - 2. Quality
  - 3. Access
  - 4. Gaps and Conflicts
- B. Developing-County Governments
  - 1. Background
  - 2. Incentives
  - 3. Quality
  - 4. Access

Part II: Solutions

Chapter 3: Intellectual Property

- A. Developing Countries
  - 1. TRIPS Flexibilities
  - 2. Increasing Local Capacity
- B. Developed Countries
  - 1. The Inventive Step
  - 2. Patent Terms
  - 3. Retaliation

Chapter 4: Differential Pricing

- A. The Theory and Practice of Price Discrimination
- B. The Pharmaceutical Industry
- C. Reform

Chapter 5: Carrots

- A. The Merits and Demerits of A Prize System
  - 1. Opportunities
  - 2. Hazards
- B. Optimal Design
  - 1. Defining the Contest
  - 2. Defining the Prize
  - 3. Prizes and Intellectual Property
  - 4. Managing Redundancy
  - 5. Sequential Innovation
  - 6. Incrementally Modified Products
  - 7. Geographic Scope

Chapter 6: Sticks

- A. Rationale
- B. Current Proposals
  - 1. Mandatory Research
  - 2. Price Regulation
  - 3. Foreign Filing License
- C. Disclosure Obligations
- D. The Social Responsibility Index
  - 1. Analogues
  - 2. Tradeable Obligations to Enhance Health

Chapter 7: Quality Control

Part III: Justifications

Chapter 8: Reasons

- A. National Self-Interest
- B. Historical Equity
- C. Social Utility
- D. Distributive Justice

Chapter 9: Objections

- A. The Limits of Ethical Commitments
- B. Compromising the Patent System
- C. Interfering with Markets

Conclusion